

IAP Global Webinar ‘Academies of science and medicine: Actions to advance urban health’

Wednesday 5 October 2022, 11:00 am UTC (1 hour)

PROGRAMME

- Welcome remarks by IAP Co-Presidents and brief presentation of IAP (Peter McGrath)
- Presentation of the IAP Urban Health initiative (Jo Ivey Boufford)
- Brief on academies’ activities on urban health: conclusions, project challenges, indicative opportunities for academies in urban health and its broader determinants (Sally Fawkes)
- Presentation on ‘Sustainable Communities’, an SSEC Global Goals community research guide (Carol O’Donnel)
- IAP Statement on Implications of Urbanization in Low- and- Middle- Income Countries (Locana Gunaratna)
- Discussion/Q&A (moderated by Peter McGrath)

Speakers

- Jo Ivey Boufford, Chair of IAP-Urban Health Working Group; Clinical Professor of Global Public Health at NYU; Board Chair, International Society for Urban Health (ISUH)
- Peter McGrath, Coordinator, InterAcademy Partnership (IAP)
- Sally Fawkes, Independent Health Policy Consultant
- Locana Gunaratna, National Academy of Sciences of Sri Lanka, Sri Lanka; Chair of the Working Group for the IAP Statement on Implications of Urbanization in Low- and- Middle- Income Countries
- Carol O’Donnell, Director, Smithsonian Science Education Center (SSEC), Washington DC, USA

Register now to the IAP Global Webinar: <https://tinyurl.com/IAPurb>